The Couer De Lion Commandery Elect Officers.

At the meeting of the Couer de Lion Commandery, No. 26, at Castle Hall, Friday evening the following officers were elected: C. M. Thomas, Eminent Commander; Dr. Frank Fithian, Generalissimo; Hon. E. M. Dickson, Captain General; Dr. M. H. Daily, Senior Warden; E. L. Harris, Junior Warden; Charles A. McMillan, Prelate; Charles Stephens, Treasurer; C.
F. Didlake, Recorder; M. H. H. Davis, Standard Bearer; Thos W. Allen, Sword Bearer; Owen Davis, Warder, and Dr.
F. L. Lapsley, Sentinel.

W. E. Board, the retiring Eminent Commander, was honored at the fifty-ninth annual conclave, which met in this city May 22, 1906, by being elected Grand Captain of the Guard. Couer de Lion is making great preparations to attend the sixtieth annual meeting of the conclave of the Grand Commandery of Kentucky at Maysville May 14, 15, and 16, and will be accompanied by the Elks' band, of this city.

After the adjournment Friday night Eminent Commander Claude M. Thomas invited the Sir Knights to the vacant store room, on Main, between Fourth and Fifth streets, which had been turned into a banquet hall by Caterer George H. Crodale, and a brilliant banquet followed.

Intelligent Dog.

Myer—That dog of yours seems to be quite an intelligent animal.

Gyer—You bet he is. I had to learn to speak German on his account.

Myer—Because why?

Gyer—So I could talk to my wife without the dog knowing what I said.

Lift That Mortgage.

If you want to pay off that mortgage on that home, see representative of Standard Trust Company, at Hotel Fordham, Tuesday and Fridays, from 1 to 8 p. m.

Ignorance may be bliss to those who do not realize that it isn't.

Destructive.

Uncle Pete was nailing furniture to the floor and taking dishes from the kitchen.

"Expecting something, uncle?"

asked the caller curiously.

"Yes, boss," replied the old man solemnly, "I'm expectin' a storm."

"You don't say? Thunderstorm?"

"No, boss, wuss den dat. I am ex-pectin' de old woman to hab one of dese brain stohm yo' heah so much about heah lately, en when et comes yo' want to be a mile away, kase she's wuss den a cyclone."

A Bride's Trousseau.

New York society was all a-flutter last week over the news of the arrival from Paris of the $250,000 trousseau of Miss Marian Fish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is to be married in June to Paul J. Rainey, of Cleveland.

This most wonderful trousseau contains a wedding gown which alone cost $50,000. On it are some of the rare old laces worn in the coronation robes of Empress Catherine of Russia.

Of the sixteen gowns included in the trousseau, ten cost in excess of $10,000 each. It is confidently predicted that the bride will display the most dazzling assortment of ball, dinner, opera, street and carriage gowns of any woman in society.

It required six great cedar chests made especially for the purpose to hold the lingerie of the trousseau. Incidentally, it is said that no bride, in this country or in any other country, ever had such an assortment of dainty muslins and linens as Miss Fish.

Soon after her engagement Miss Fish obtained a young woman whose physical dimensions are exactly those of herself. She was sent to Europe with a purchasing commissioner and the rare garments with rich laces and froufrous were purchased. Then they were altered in size to fit Miss Fish's model, who has been posing for nearly three months for the alterations. She posed for sixteen rich gowns.

It's the last word that usually brings on the first blow.

XTRAGOOD

ARE you getting Boys' Clothing with the best quality and style?

Are you, for a fact, or is it doubtful? There is no use trying to convince yourself that you can buy as good clothing anywhere else as we handle; it is useless to try to save money over the prices we ask. To assume that you get the service or satisfaction from "cheaper" clothing is to argue that right is not might, that merit has not power, that value does not count.
